It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner happens to be married nanad of the deceased, who was not present in the sasural of the deceased on the date of occurrence, which would be manifest from the impugned order itself. Moreover, a letter purported to have been written by the deceased addressed to her parents also indicates that she was apprehensive of danger to her life from her in-laws not from this petitioner. Moreover, as further submitted, the mother-in-law as well as husband of the deceased are still lodged in jail and this petitioner is also in custody since 28.10.2007.

In the facts and circumstances, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of rupees ten thousand with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Siwan, in Nautan P.S.case no. 102 of 2007.
